

POLISH CITIZEN (SENIOR)

Who are you?

You are a senior citizen living in Poland. Do you remember the times before EU accession and the changes that occurred after 2004?

What is important to you?

- security
- stability
- preserving national identity
- support for regions and seniors

Your questions for the EU:

- Will the EU continue to help Poland?
- Will new EU countries weaken our position?
- How will the EU handle migration?

CITIZEN OF THE "OLD EU"

Who are you?

You are a senior citizen from a country that has been in the EU from the very beginning (e.g., Germany, France).

What is important to you?

- economic stability
- common rules
- responsibility of all countries

Your concerns:

- Is the EU expanding too quickly?
- Do all countries follow the same rules?
- Who will pay for any crises?

EUROPEAN UNION POLITICIAN

Who are you?

You are someone who must think about the interests of the entire EU, not just those of a single country.

Your tasks:

- seek compromises
- mitigate conflicts
- think long-term

Your dilemmas:

- migration – solidarity or national interest?
- Brexit – punishment or warning?
- climate change – quick decisions or caution?

MIGRANT

Who are you?

You came to Europe from a country affected by war, crisis, or climate change.

What do you expect?

- safety
- work
- respect

Your questions:

- Is Europe solidary?
- Does everyone have the same rights?
- How can we integrate without losing our identity?

REPRESENTATIVE OF A COUNTRY WISHING TO JOIN THE EU

Who are you?

You represent a country that wants to join the European Union.

Your arguments:

- The EU stands for peace and development
- shared values
- a better future for young people

Your concerns:

- Is the EU still open?
- Will we be treated worse?

EU SKEPTIC

Who are you?

You believe the EU has too much influence on the lives of countries.

Your arguments:

- too many regulations
- loss of sovereignty
- Brexit as an example

Your questions:

- Is the EU really necessary?
- Can't countries manage on their own?
