6. Workshop schedule

1. Introduction

- Welcoming the participants.
- Reference to the “Europe can be liked” project
- Brief explanation of why the topic of values and goals is important
- Time: 5 minutes

2. Main section – learning activities

Activity 1: Positioning in the room based on 3 statements about the EU (agree – disagree)

- Objective:
  Participants should spontaneously position themselves along a virtual line in the room according to their views – without further deliberation. A brief discussion with others is permitted.
- Instructions:
  The facilitator reads out the statements one after the other (a. card with questions). After each statement, the participants take their positions.
  For the next phase, the group is divided into 6 groups by counting the participants from 1 to 6.
- Time: 10 minutes
- Materials: Card with questions
- Annex 1:

Activity 3: Structured discussion rounds

- Objectives:
  - Participants learn about the fundamental values of the EU and, through discussion, gain a nuanced understanding of the individual values.
  - They reflect on their personal stance and, through the discussion, learn about the significance of these values for others.
- Activity description: Discussion rounds
- Instructions:
  - The discussion takes place in 6 groups. (Groups were formed by counting off.)
  - Each group is given a card featuring a value and the guiding question.
  - The discussion on each value lasts 3–4 minutes.
  - The facilitators then pass the value cards clockwise from one group to the next, so that all groups discuss all 6 values.
  - Final reflection in plenary
- Time: approx. 25 minutes
- Materials: Value cards (1 copy) and one guiding question per group (6 copies)

Activity 5: Board game "Goal Game"

- Objectives:
  - Participants expand their knowledge of the EU's goals by answering the questions.
  - They gain a varied perspective on the challenges associated with the goals.
  - They engage in conversation about EU topics in a playful way.
  - They work together to find solutions to the questions.
- Activity description: Board game
- Instructions:
  - The game is played in groups of 4–5 people.
  - Each group receives a game set (6 EU objectives with 5 stages). There is a game piece for each objective – matching the colour of the objective. oIt is placed on the starting position. Each group receives a stack of question cards.
  - One card is drawn per round.
  - There are two different types of cards:
    1. Knowledge cards: The group draws a knowledge card and works together to find the answer. The answer is printed in small text at the bottom of the card.
       The answer on the knowledge card is then read aloud.
       Some questions are more light-hearted and are intended to liven up the game.
    2. Discussion cards: The group draws a discussion card with a topic on which they can discuss for 2 minutes. The time is measured using an hourglass or stopwatch.

- Time: 30 minutes
- Materials: Board game set (1 game board, 6 playing pieces, 29 knowledge cards and 13 discussion cards, 1 hourglass or stopwatch)
