Human dignity

The dignity of all human being is inviolable.

Freedom

Freedom of expression, freedom of movement, personal autonomy, and protection against state arbitrariness

Democracy

Political decisions are based on elections, parcipatory decision-making, and a diversity of opinion.

Equality

All people are equal before the law.

Discrimination is prohibited.

Rule of law

Government action is bound by law.

Independent courts protect civil liberties.

Human rights

Protection of a person's fundamental rights

Right of life, freedom of expression, freedom of religion, protection from persecution

How and where do we actually encounter this value in our everday lives?